

1978.

SAINT SERF'S CHURCH PLAYERS
and
PALMERSTON PLACE AMATEUR DRAMATIC SOCIETY

Once again St. Serf's Church Players have combined resources with our friends from Palmerston Place Amateur Dramatic Society in staging this our second joint production. We hope that you will enjoy the results of our efforts this evening.

The experience of working together during this season has resulted in a link being established with our two churches through a common interest in amateur drama. This we hope will continue into the future.

St. Serf's Players as members of the Churches Drama Federation will be entering their play 'The Buchan Trap' in the one-act festival to be held in our Halls during the week ending 26th May. This will be repeated during the following week as part of the Trinity and Goldenacre Association mini-festival also being held in our Halls. We would ask for your support for these events.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Cheshire Foundation Home for the loan of collecting boxes and 'Red Feathers'.

Lothians Police Force for the loan of uniform.

Our thanks also to those who kindly lent the various fur coats.

JOINTLY PRESENT

MIDSUMMER
WINK

A stylized sunburst graphic consisting of a semi-circle of radiating lines, positioned to the right of the title 'MIDSUMMER WINK'.

A COMEDY IN THREE ACTS BY PETER COKE

Curtain up 7.30 p.m.

Programme 5p.

THE PLAYERS
(in order of appearance.)

THE SCENE

The action of the play passes in the livingroom of Dame Beatrice's flat adjoining the Albert Hall.

THE TIME
1960

BRIGADIER ALBERT RAYNE, C.B., C.M.G., M.V.O.	Frank Lucas
ALICE, LADY MILLER	Dorsay Larnach
MISS NANETTE PARRY	Margaret Anderson
MISS ELIZABETH HATFIELD	Helen Walker
DAME BEATRICE APPLEBY	Jeana Elliott
LILY THOMPSON	Maureen Lucas
TED	Alan Lucas
MICHAEL HOGAN	Jack Paterson
CHRIS	Ronald Boyd
MADAME CHAMBERT	Helen Wilson
DETECTIVE INSPECTOR WILSON	Carol Sanderson

ACT ONE	A morning in Summer
ACT TWO	Morning - six weeks later
ACT THREE	Evening - six weeks later.

Stage Director & Set Design	Norman Anderson
Properties and Costumes	(Jeane Dryburgh (Jennie Biddie (Gilbert Stewart (Trevor Garlick (David Reith (Ian McPherson
Lighting, Sound and Staging
Continuity	Jean Redman
Front of House	Fiona Cunningham
Catering	(Jessie Johnstone (Jean Burgoyne

THE PLAY PRODUCED BY EDDIE BIDDIE

Refreshments will be on sale in the small hall during both intervals.