

~~Dec 1979.~~
JAN 1980

1979 was disappointing for the Players in that we were unable to stage any major production during the year. A burst pipe during last winter flooded our wardrobe and properties store and the tidying up process took us several weeks of hard labour.

This present production due to have been performed in December through unforeseen circumstances had to be postponed until this week.

We did, however, manage to stage an entry in the Churches' Drama Federation 1979 Festival in our halls and also put on a performance of James Scotland's 'Halloween' in October at a charity evening at Cramond Kirk. Our customary carol evening with readings was again a success.

We hope that you now enjoy our new production of Noel Coward's 'Blithe Spirit'. Some of you may recall a previous production a number of years ago!
