

ACTING VACANCIES

FREE TUITION : FREE CUP OF TEA
ON JOINING

Why pay each time to sit in our audience!
For a small annual subscription you can dress up, make up and cavort about the stage with us. Learn to speak in public;
improve your confidence and posture; have fun.

St. Serf's Players have a long history which we plan to continue now that a new Minister is about to be appointed.

BUT WE NEED NEW MEMBERS.

If your school days are over why not come along one Monday evening at 8 o'clock.
There is no retirement age - one member is over 80 - and who knows you may join the select band of past Players who turned professional!

If acting does not interest you then become part of our backstage team.

But if you won't join us, please continue to support us and encourage others.

ENJOY TONIGHT'S PLAY

ST. SERF'S PLAYERS

present

BUSSYBODDY

a comedy thriller by
JACK POPPLEWELL

12th/13th/14th APRIL 1984

SYNOPSIS OF SCENES

Action takes place in Richard Marshall's private office high up in a block of offices in London.

ACT 1

- Scene 1 Night
- Scene 2 Fifteen minutes later
- Scene 3 The following morning

ACT 2

Six o'clock the following evening

ACT 3

Four-thirty the following afternoon

-----oOo-----

Refreshments will be on sale in the small hall during both intervals.

Our thanks to Mr Aslam, Newsagent, Darnell Road, for distribution of publicity leaflets.

CAST
(in order of appearance)

RICHARD MARSHALL	Bill Brodie
MRS PIPER	Dorsay Larnach
DETECTIVE CONSTABLE GODDARD	Alan Smith
DETECTIVE SUPERINTENDENT BAXTER	John McColl
CLAIRE MARSHALL	Alison McCallum
MARIAN SELBY	Helen Wilson
ROBERT WESTERBY	Stuart Larnach
VICKIE REYNOLDS	Susan Ford

-----oOo-----

The play produced by	Eddie Biddie
----------------------	--------------

-----oOo-----

Stage Director	Eileen Bennett
Lighting, Sound and Setting	Gilbert Stewart Trevor Garlick Margery Westwater Norman Anderson Graham Lang
Costume and Properties	Jeane Dryburgh Jennie Biddie
Continuity	Pat Brodie Jean Redman