St Serf's Players 60th Anniversary

St Serf's Players was formed in late 1948 with the first One Act Plays being performed in February 1949,

-The Ugly Duckling, In Waltz Time and John Grumlie –

The club has performed at least one play every year since 1948 and totals over 75 Full length plays and over 95 One Act Plays. St Serf's Players has played a role in both the KDF (Kirk Drama Festival) and SCDA (Scottish Community Drama Association) since 1952 and more recently a local Community Festival. Based here at St Serf's Church Halls, the club has continually improved the facilities in the Halls for use as a theatre which are now used throughout the year by many other theatre companies. Further information on past shows and copies of programs are available on our website www.stserfsplayers.org.uk
