Sam Jackson

Until recently the part of Sam was being played by Bill McQue. For some time Bill has been awaiting a kidney transplant and last weekend was taken into hospital for his operation. We are delighted to hear that he is making excellent progress. Our best wishes are with Bill and his wife Lesley who is also a member of our cast.

We are indebted to our producer, David McCallum, for stepping into the part at such short notice.

We are hoping to present two one-act plays in the Hall on 24th & 25th May and look forward to your support.
