

INTRODUCING THE ADJUDICATOR

ALAN HASLETT
from Northern Ireland

Involved with theatre for over 40 years, Alan has a wealth of experience as an actor, singer, director and adjudicator. He is a member of ADA and an associate member of GODA and has adjudicated at Bangor/Ards, Anglesey and Castlereagh festivals recently.

He has performed in and directed award-winning musicals from 1969 to the present day, and has also directed plays for his own drama group – The Two Bridges Theatre Group, competing five times in the Irish Festival Drama Circuit, twice reaching the Confined Finals with Factory Girls by Frank McGuinness and Midden by Morna Regan.

Before retiring, Alan was an advisory officer for music & drama with the Western Education & Library Board.

Alan is new to us so we are very much looking forward to hearing his adjudications.
